DISCUSSION QUESTIONS FOR ROMANS 12:10

1. Why is it important for us to follow God's Word?
2. What is something that stood out to you in today's text?
3. Was there something you learned this morning?
4. What seemed like the most important thing discussed?
5. Which is more difficult for you: #1 Carrying out an action of obedience from God (serving someone, helping others, obeying your parents, etc.) or #2 Feeling a certain emotion that God commands (loving with brotherly affection, hating what is evil)?
6. What does affection mean?
7. We talked about love last week, is brotherly affection different? How?
8. As Christians, why is the phrase "I love them, but I don't like them" not acceptable when considering our brothers and sisters in Christ?
9. Can you only love your brother with brotherly affection?
10. Would showing your friends brotherly affection be holding their feelings higher than your own? How could you do that this week at school?
11. When was a time, if any, that you struggled to feel brotherly affection for another Christian?
12. What does outdo mean?
13. What does honor mean and who do you honor?
14. Why would we want to outdo someone in showing honor?
15. Besides instructions on honoring widows, elders/pastors, teachers and parents, are there any other ways the Bible specifically helps us know how to honor others in our faith family?
16. Are adults the only people we are to honor?
17. How can we honor our friends at school?
18. Who is our Faith Family, again? How are we serving them?

Romans 12:10

¹⁰Love one another with brotherly affection. Outdo one another in showing honor. ESV

¹⁰Be kindly affectionate to one another with brotherly love, in honor giving preference to one another; NKJV

¹⁰Show family affection to one another with brotherly love. Outdo one another in showing honor.
