SERMON-BASED CURRICULUM

LOVING ACCOUNTABILITY

As we partnered with God this past week to _____, what did He do? How did He work in and through us?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS FOR JOSHUA 6:1-21

1. In what way(s), did God speak to you today through Joshua 6:1-21? What, in particular, could be used to fuel your praise to Jesus?
2. What challenges do you face in your life?
3. Do your challenges ever seem like the walls of Jericho...so big they seem to be overwhelming?
4. In light of Joshua 6, are there any challenges that are impossible with God power?
5. Do you have any strongholds in your life?
6. How do we overcome strongholds? 2 Corinthians 10:3-4
7. Do you ever make people bigger than God in your life?
8. What commitments/promises has God made to Christians in the Bible?
9. Why do you think God chose to bring the wall of Jericho down the way He did?
10. Does God always work in our lives the way we think he should?
11. Do you ever behave like you think you know better than God?
12. Do you believe God can work today like he did when he brought the walls of Jericho down?
13. How do you live...like a conqueror or like someone who is defeated?
14. How should you live if you are a Christian? Romans 8:31-39
15. What is the most important thing that stood out to you in Joshua 6?
