MISSIONS 101

WEEK 3

THE HARVEST

Missions 101 Verse: Matthew 9:37, Then he said to his disciples, “The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few; therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest.”

The Harvest

Romans 1:18-23

For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who by their unrighteousness suppress the truth. For what can be known about God is plain to them, because God has shown it to them. For his invisible attributes, namely, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly perceived, ever since the creation of the world, in the things that have been made. So they are without excuse. For although they knew God, they did not honor him as God or give thanks to him, but they became futile in their thinking, and their foolish hearts were darkened. Claiming to be wise, they became fools, and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images resembling mortal man and birds and animals and creeping things.

1. Romans 1:19 All people “know God,” even if they have never heard the Bible. “What can be known about God is plain to them.”
2. Romans 1:19-20 The way they know God is by the way God has made the world and their own consciences.
3. Romans 1:18 They suppress the truth and they resist the truth deep in their hearts and exchange it for other things that they would rather have, Romans 1:23.
4. Romans 1:20 They are without excuse.

God’s Commission for Missions – Matthew 28:18-20

And Jesus came and said to them, ‘All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, to the close of the age.

1. First, that we would go into all the nations. So God would have us go all over the world, not just where we believe that we can achieve the maximum effect or results.

(e.g. – So we see this in some of the Apostle Paul’s journeys. In chapter 15 of Romans, Paul says that it his ambition is to preach the Gospel where Christ was not known, so that he would not be building on someone else’s foundation. Read Acts.)

2. And second, not only should we go, but also make disciples by teaching them thoroughly.

3. Notice also that we can go with assurance that Christ’s work will be accomplished. How do we know that? Because Christ lays claim to all authority in heaven and on earth, and for this reason commands his followers to go. We see that in verse 18. Because of this, and we see the word “therefore” used in verse 19, we are to go and make disciples of all nations. There is a cause and effect relationship in these two sentences because of the use of that word “therefore.”

What is a People Group?

A significantly large grouping of individuals who perceive themselves to have a common affinity for one another because of their shared language, religion, ethnicity, residence, occupation, class or caste, situation, etc., or combinations of these. (1982 Lausanne Strategy Working Group)

Reached vs. Unreached

Romans 15:18-21, Paul says:

I will not venture to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me in leading the gentiles to obey God by what I have said and done – by the power of signs and miracles, through the power of the Spirit. So, from Jerusalem all the way around to Illyricum, I have fully proclaimed the Gospel of Christ. It has always been my ambition to preach the Gospel where Christ was not known, so that I would not be building on someone else’s foundation. Rather, as it is written, ‘Those who were not told about him will see, and those who have not heard will understand.’

1. Diversity exalts His glory – Psalm 96:3-4

More praise comes from unity in diversity rather than unity alone. It is more powerful and beautiful. Consider multitudes of people who have nothing else in common except for their salvation in Christ. That brings glory and honor to God.

That's why the church is such a beautiful picture and provides us with a glimpse of heaven. So I may have nothing in common with person X (use example) outside of our mutual great hope in Christ; but that commonality is everything. Our unity in Christ is a reflection of God, giving testimony to the one true God. The fact that we may be different in any other regard only highlights God's greatness more.

2. Demonstrates his universal greatness – Romans 15:11

The fame and worth of an object of beauty increases in proportion to the diversity of those who recognize its beauty. If a work of art is admired among a small and like-minded group of people, its worth is minimal because it is not universally recognized. So its praise can be attributed to the particular biases of that small group of people. But if a work continues to win more and more people across cultures over centuries, then its greatness is clearly evident to all.

3. Crushes ethnocentric pride.

By focusing on all the peoples of the world, God undercuts ethnocentric pride and reminds people of His free grace rather than any distinctive of their own. See Acts 17.

4. Worth shown in variety of those who love Him.

God is magnified in leading a diverse group of people rather than a homogeneous group. The more diverse the people groups who forsake their gods to follow the one true God, the more visible is God's superiority over these other false gods.
