SERMON-BASED CURRICULUM

LOVING ACCOUNTABILITY

As we partnered with God this past week to _____, what did He do? How did He work in and through us?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS FOR REVELATION 6

1. In what way did God use His Spirit and His Word in your life as we studied Revelation 6:1-17?
2. If we know that all Scripture is from our God and all Scripture is for our good, then why do we sometimes avoid certain parts of Scripture?
3. If someone were to ask you why they should study Revelation, how would you answer them?
4. In what ways has our study of Revelation already been for your good?
5. Why should it be comforting for us as believers that God created the scroll and that Christ controls it?
6. Why does it seem as if we forget at times that even death and disease have no authority of their own, but only the boundaries God sets for them?
7. How can reading in the text about the “souls of those who had been slain for the word of God and for the witness they had borne” be an encouragement for us to persevere through persecution?
8. In what ways should the prayer of the martyrs fuel our persevering in prayer?
9. When was a time that God answered a prayer you were praying in His right time instead of yours?
10. What would you say to someone who thinks their pleas for the Lord to carry out His holy justice are not being heard?
11. What are some ways that creation with testify that Jesus is coming again?
12. Based on Rev. 6:15-17, how can we know that no one outside of Christ will be spared and that nowhere outside of Christ will be safe?
13. Why won't rocks falling on individuals ultimately protect them from the wrath of God?
14. Since the Day of the Lord will be certain, in what ways should you and I contend now for the gospel?
15. In what ways can we contend together this week for the gospel?

APPLICATION
