DISCUSSION QUESTIONS FOR REV. 21:1-22:5

1. In what way has God used His Spirit and His Word both in you and through you this past week?
2. In what way did God use Rev. 21:1-22:5 to speak to you now through His Spirit?
3. How often do you think of Heaven?
4. As believers, why should we think of Heaven often?
5. What is the first thing that comes to your mind when you think of Heaven?
6. In light of today's passage, what are some cultural conceptions of Heaven that are incorrect?
7. Which of the promises of God in Revelation 21-22 do you most long for? Why?
8. What is the primary joy of Heaven (Rev. 21:3 and 22:4)? In what ways can we be guilty at times of elevating secondary blessings in Heaven to our primary focus?
9. Which of the characteristics in Revelation 21:8 is the most applicable warning for you, and how can you heed this warning today?
10. What does it mean that God and the Lamb are the temple in the new Jerusalem?
11. What do you think the garden imagery in this passage tells us about the mission of God in the whole Bible?
12. Why do you think John emphasizes "the nations" in Revelation 21-22?
13. What difference is the reality of Heaven and the reality of Hell making in your life currently?
14. What is one thing about your life that can be changed to be more "heavenly minded" to be more effective for "earthly good"?
