SERMON-BASED CURRICULUM

LOVING ACCOUNTABILITY

As we partnered with God this past week to _____, what did He do? How did He work in and through us?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS FOR HEBREWS 13:7-16

1. In what way(s) did God speak to you today through His Spirit and His Word?
2. Who are some leaders in your life who faithfully shared God's Word with you?
3. What stands out about their lives and how can you imitate their faith in Christ?
4. Since He is the same yesterday and today and forever, what comfort should we have knowing our faith in Christ is not in vain?
5. What are examples of teachings that try to lead us away from the truth of the gospel?
6. How can we recognize and reject teaching that goes against the gospel?
7. Why should we embrace Christ and His gospel over all other religious practices or teachings?
8. What does it look like to bear the reproach of Christ currently in our world?
9. How can we focus on Jesus and what lasts forever rather than spending all our energy on what is fleeting?
10. How do you, through Christ, offer up a daily sacrifice of praise to God by acknowledging His name with your lips?
11. How are you offering sacrifices that are pleasing to God by joyfully serving and sharing with others?
12. How often do you honestly think about living in a way that pleases God?
13. How often do you seek to live your week as a grateful worshipper who has received a Kingdom that cannot be shaken?
14. How is any of what we are learning in Hebrews impacting how you are living?

APPLICATION
