SERMON-BASED CURRICULUM

LOVING ACCOUNTABILITY

As we partnered with God this past week to _____, what did He do? How did He work in and through us?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS FOR EXODUS 20:13

1. In what way(s) did God speak to you today through His Spirit and His Word?
2. Why does being made in God's image mean that every person has value no matter their abilities, race, ethnicity, or any other category?
3. What are ways our world fails to protect, preserve, and to prize life?
4. What are ways you are striving to protect, preserve, and to prize life?
5. When was a time you may not have seen all life as precious? What changed your mind?
6. When Jesus teaches us that commandments are not just about the letter of the law but also the spirit of the law, what does He mean?
7. What are ways we may be tempted like the Pharisees to only obey the commandments from an external religious perspective?
8. If you've not broken the sixth commandment with your actions, when was a time you were tempted to break this commandment with your attitude/anger toward someone?
9. When is anger "righteous" and when is anger "unrighteous"? In which category do you think your anger is most usually located?
10. Why is unrighteous anger so dangerous? What have you done, in the power of the Spirit, to put away unrighteous anger in your heart and life?
11. How can we strive to not let our anger escalate toward others and to also avoid contributing to anyone else's anger toward us?
12. When was a time you were certain you had contributed to someone else being angry? What did you do to pursue reconciliation with this person?
