1. In what way(s) did God speak to you today through His Spirit and His Word?
2. When is a time you were in awe of the Lord and what impact did that awe have on your life? Why should we, and how can we cultivate a continual awe of the Lord?
3. In our faith family, where have you seen an awe-filled, joy-fueled devotion to the Word, lovingly sacrificing for one another, praising and praying to the Lord, and seeing the gospel advance in our community? Which of these four areas, if any, is it difficult to see an awe-filled, joy-fueled devotion at Hebron? What about in your life and in your family?
4. What does it look like practically for a church to be devoted to the Word? What does it look like practically for your family to be devoted to the Word?
5. When was a time that God used someone else to meet a need in your life? How is your Connect Group meeting needs in each other's lives?
6. What does it look like practically for a church to be devoted to prayer? What does it look like practically for your family to be devoted to prayer?
7. Why do you think it was beneficial for the first church to meet as a group in the Temple but also to meet in smaller groups in homes? Why do we need both types of gatherings in our faith family?
8. Why is it significant that the Lord did not add anyone to the church without saving them, and did not save anyone without adding them to the church?
