

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

ACTS 17:1-15

1. In what way(s), did the Spirit speak to you today through the Word? How were you equipped, encouraged, reproved, or challenged?
2. How are you challenged by Paul's willingness to suffer in city after city and keep pressing forward to share the gospel in as many places as possible?
3. When he came into a new town, why do you think Paul always attempted to start sharing the gospel in a synagogue?
4. How and why do the Scriptures play a prominent role in Paul's ministry in both Thessalonica and Berea? What role do the Scriptures play in your ministry to others?
5. What Old Testament passages do you think Paul could have used to proclaim Christ's suffering, death, and resurrection?
6. What Scriptures do you use when sharing the gospel?
7. What does it mean to receive the Word with all eagerness? How is this going in your life?
8. Why can we sometimes take having God's Word in our language for granted?
9. How should we be challenged by the way the Bereans studied the Word to confirm what Paul was saying was true?
10. Why do we need to study God's Word daily? What is your plan for daily study of the Word?
11. How will you steward, study, and share God's Word this week?
