

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS
ACTS 18:18-19:10

1. In what way(s) did God speak to you today through His Spirit and His Word?
2. How are you challenged by Paul's consistency in sharing the gospel with non-believers and strengthening the disciples wherever he goes? How are you pursuing both actions in your life?
3. Why do you think the churches Paul planted may have been out of his sight, but never far from his mind, heart, and prayers? How is this reflected in our concern for other members of our faith family during the week?
4. How are you challenged by Paul's willingness to go wherever, whenever for the sake of the gospel, and what prevents us from being as open to the Lord's plans as Paul was?
5. What can we learn from Priscilla's and Aquila's approach to helping Apollos understand the gospel more accurately? What can we learn from Apollos' willingness to learn?
6. Who has helped or is helping you grow in clarity regarding the gospel?
7. How is your growth in the gospel impacting each day the Lord gives you?
8. Like Priscilla and Aquila, how are you opening your home for the sake of the gospel? To whom are you grateful they opened their home to minister to you?
9. How can you talk about the gospel with someone who thinks that he or she is a Christian, but whom you suspect is not?
10. What can we learn from Paul's interactions with the disciples of John?
