

PRAYING FOR OUR MOMS (AND EVERYONE ELSE) Dr. Landon Dowden May 12, 2024 | 2 Thessalonians 1:11-12; 2:16-17; 3:5,16

Passage in a Sentence: One of the greatest ways we can serve other brothers and sisters in Christ is by consistently praying for God to be glorified as He empowers us to live grace-fueled, gospel-centered lives.

I.	By His grace and for His glory, may the Lord conform and empower your hearts to live out your Gospel calling (1:11-12).
II.	By His grace and for His glory, may the Lord comfort and establish your hearts in every good work and word (2:16-17).
III.	By His grace and for His glory, may the Lord direct your hearts to God's love and Christ's steadfastness (3:5).
IV.	By His grace and for His glory, may the Lord fill your hearts with peace as He encourages you with His presence (3:16).
