

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

May 19, 2024 | Acts 21:17-22:21

1. In what way(s) did God speak to you today through His Spirit and His Word?
2. Who is the most committed person to Christ you've ever known? In what ways are they committed to Christ?
3. How are you currently seeing and celebrating God's grace at work in the gospel?
4. When was a time, if any, you had trouble celebrating God's grace at work somewhere else and in the lives of other people?
5. How could the offering/financial gift Paul and the Gentile brothers brought to the church in Jerusalem be an encouragement to them?
6. By God's grace, how are you striving to reach whomever you can with the gospel however you can?
7. In what ways are you challenged by Paul's compassion in wanting to share the gospel with those who beat him and wanted to kill him?
8. What, if any, costs are you not willing to pay right now in striving to see the gospel advance in and through you or your family or our faith family?
9. What can we learn from Paul's recounting of his conversion that could be helpful in our communicating the gospel with others?
10. In what ways, if any, are you currently tempted to compromise the gospel in either your life or your conversations with others?
