

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS FOR ACTS 23:11-35

1. In what way(s) did God speak to you today through His Spirit and His Word?
2. How is Christ's call to "Take Courage" ultimately a call to take comfort in Christ?
3. How can we be encouraged by Christ's affirming the facts Paul had been sharing about Jesus? Why should this strengthen our belief in the gospel?
4. When is a time you felt particularly comforted and strengthened by Christ as you were striving to serve Him?
5. As we serve the Lord, why should we expect passionate opposition from some in the world?
6. How can you see God's providence in Paul's nephew's learning of the plot and the process of communicating that information to the Roman tribune?
7. How have you seen God's providence working for your good as you serve Christ?
8. What does the large contingent of Roman soldiers who are assigned to escort Paul safely to Caesarea ultimately say to us about God?
9. How can the Spirit use Acts 23:11-35 in our heads and hearts to minimize worry and maximize worship of Christ?
10. In what ways, if any, are you failing to fully surrender to the Lord's plan for your life?
