

Discussion Questions for 2 Corinthians 5:17-21

1. In what way(s) did God speak to you today through His Spirit and Word?
2. Where and how have you been “going” with the gospel this summer?
3. To whom do you hope to share the gospel this semester?
4. How can we fight not to lose awe and wonder that God would reconcile us to Himself by making Christ, who knew no sin, to be sin so that in Him we might become the righteousness of God? Why do we sometimes seem desensitized to this breathtaking Truth?
5. What comfort is there in the Truth that if we’ve been made new by the Father, we will always have His nature in us?
6. How often do you view yourself as an ambassador for Christ? What would help all of us have this mindset each day?
7. When you hear that God is making His appeal to non-Christians through us, in what ways does this encourage you, and in what ways does it make you feel something else?
8. In what ways is God’s message of reconciliation advancing in you and through you? Is there anyone or anything keeping it from advancing in/through you?
9. If those who are made new are now controlled/compelled by the love of Christ fueling sacrificial actions for others in our lives, in whom have you seen this love at Hebron? In what ways is Christ’s love compelling you?
10. As ambassadors of Christ, why is it necessary that what we proclaim is not ourselves but Jesus Christ as Lord? How can we be sure we’ve proclaimed the gospel and not just our testimony?
11. What’s one gospel goal you have for yourself, one gospel goal you have for your family, and one gospel goal you have for your Connect Group for the time that remains in 2024 (August-December)?
