

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS FOR MATTHEW 5:33-37

1. In what way(s) did God speak to you today through His Spirit and His Word?
2. When are you most tempted not to be truthful?
3. How have you seen your lack of truth or the lack of truth by others cause pain and problems in relationships/friendships?
4. Why should and how can our conversations and conduct be consistently marked by truth? How can we help each other with this?
5. Why should we be careful and how can we be consistent in commitments we make to the Lord?
6. What should we do if we've broken commitments we've made to the Lord or to others?
7. Why are we at times tempted to make a commitment for which we have no intention of keeping?
8. Why should we not be careless in the commitments we make to others?
9. How do we know we can trust the commitments God has made to us?
10. In our world today, how can our living and speaking truthfully be for God's glory and the good of others?