

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS FOR MATTHEW 6:19-24

1. In what way(s) did God speak to you today through His Spirit and His Word?
2. What does it mean to see and value God rightly, and how can we do both?
3. Where are you intentionally setting your eyes and mind each day? How can we help each other intentionally set both on God?
4. How have you been tempted to treasure the resources God has entrusted to you rather than steward those to show God as your greatest treasure?
5. How much time and energy (and money) are you currently using toward accumulating and maintaining items that will not last?
6. What does storing treasures in Heaven look like in your life on a weekly basis?
7. What does it mean to give cheerfully and sacrificially to the Lord? How is this reflected in your life or what is preventing this from being reflected in your life?
8. Why is giving to the Lord's work in and through the church an important responsibility for each member of a faith family?
9. Why is money a terrible master for us? In what ways has money failed to ultimately provide satisfaction or security in your life?
10. What should we do if our desire for money is greater than our desire for God?
