

Discussion Questions for 1 Samuel 2:1-10

1. Do you relate more to Hannah's grief in chapter 1 or joy in chapter 2 right now in your life?
2. What can Hannah teach us about grief in the Christian life?
3. What can Hannah teach us about opposition that we face in the Christian life?
4. Does the idea of God's judgment bring fear or joy to your heart? Why should it be a source of comfort for Christians?
5. Of all the praises that Hannah proclaims of the Lord, which ones stand out in particular to you today?
6. Where in your life do you need to rest in the knowledge and strength of the Lord?
7. For those who know more of 1 Samuel, how do we see the Lord's plans for Israel play out in Samuel's life?
8. In what ways does the passage point us forward to Christ's incarnation and reign?
9. In what ways does Christ's priesthood and kingship give us joy this Christmas season?
10. How can Hannah's song impact your life this week?