

Hannah's Song to Our Savior
Dr. Chet Harvey
December 1, 2024 | 1 Samuel 2:1-10

Passage in a Sentence: In Hannah's song to the Savior, she teaches us to rejoice in our God who brings salvation to His children and judgment to His enemies through His anointed King.

I. Rejoice with Hannah that no enemy can stand against God's provisions for His people.

II. Rejoice with Hannah that there is none other like our God.

- a. He is unique in His holiness (v. 2).
- b. He is unique in His strength (v. 2, 4, 8, 10).
- c. He is unique in His knowledge (v. 3).
- d. He is unique in His accomplishments (v. 2, 6, 8, 10).
- e. He is unique in His judgments (v. 3, 7, 8, 9, 10).

III. Rejoice with Hannah that God promised a King to rule the nations and bring His plans to pass.