ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This Launch Guide is adapted from the Replicate Ministries D-Group Starter Guide. Replicate Ministries exists to equip local churches to make disciples who make disciple-makers. We do this through sound Biblical methods for training and replicating disciples. These methods have proven to be effective when implemented in the local church. In the last decade, these intentional disciple-making strategies have shown to develop mature followers in our context. It is the team's desire to share our passion for replicating disciples with other church leaders. For more information about Replicate Ministries visit replicate.org.

D-GROUP LAUNCH GUIDE

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

---

The next 12 months of your life will be an exciting time as you enter a season of accelerated spiritual transformation. The D-Group environment encourages us to engage with God's Word and His followers in a way that most of us never have before. As His Spirit works in our lives, it creates a passion to help others experience the same thing.

The D-Group Launch Guide introduces each element of the group and helps your group start strong. We would encourage each member of the group to have a booklet and use it to guide you through the first few weeks of meetings.

This resource will help your group have three important conversations:

WEEK 1 - GETTING STARTED

During the first meeting, you will set clear expectations for the group and get to know one another. This guide provides a couple of simple exercises to help you lay a strong foundation.

WEEK 2 - INTRODUCING D-GROUP JOURNALS & SCRIPTURE MEMORY

In the second week, you will begin to get into the rhythm of the five weekly disciplines. You will learn what a D-Group Journal is and why Scripture Memory is so important.

WEEK 3 - INTRODUCING ACCOUNTABILITY & PRAYER

During the third week you will continue your weekly rhythm through the disciplines while also introducing your second accountability question and explaining how you will pray for one another.

GETTING STARTED

WEEK 1

Welcome to week one of D-Group! Today's meeting will look different than your normal weeks. You will focus on getting to know one another, setting expectations, and committing to one another. Get ready for the amazing weeks ahead!

GETTING TO KNOW ONE ANOTHER

Below are a list of questions you can discuss as a group. You most likely will not have time to go through all of them, but pick 1-2 and designate half your meeting time to discussing them.

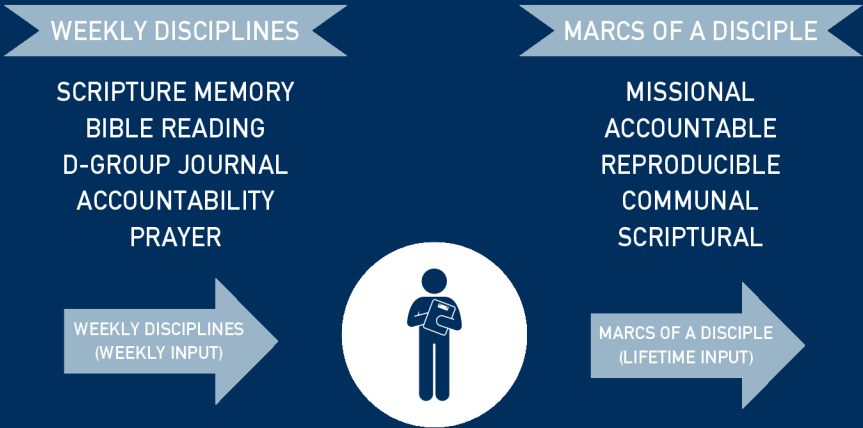

- Share a 2-3 minute version of your testimony.
- What are you most looking forward to in this group?
- Tell us about your family, work, and personal hobbies.
- What is one thing that you are excited or intrigued by right now?

NOTE

In the future, you can spend more time getting to know one another. A great way to do this is by asking a different member each week to share their story in 7-10 minutes. Also, you can spend time talking about your "highs" and "lows" for the week.

SET EXPECTATIONS

It's important that we all have the same expectation for this group. Below is an image called the D-Group DNA. This image and the next couple of pages explain what is unique about this D-Group.

OUR PART

1 TIMOTHY 4:7-8

“Have nothing to do with godless myths and old wives’ tales; rather, train yourself to be godly. For physical training is of some value, but godliness has value for all things, holding promises for both the present life and the life to come.”

We train in godliness by weekly committing to the five disciplines.

FIVE WEEKLY DISCIPLINES:

1. Scripture Memory
2. Bible Reading
3. D-Group Journal
4. Accountability
5. Prayer

Which of the five weekly disciplines are you currently doing well?
Which do you need to grow in the most?

GOD'S PART

---

2 TIMOTHY 3:16-17

“All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.”

HEBREWS 4:12

“For the word of God is alive and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart.”

Each of these verses speaks to how the Holy Spirit uses God's Word to change our lives. Though we commit to the disciplines above, it is not our effort that changes us, but the Holy Spirit through His Word. The disciplines provide room in our lives for God to work.

WHAT WILL HAPPEN?

As we allow the Word of God to work in our lives we will see its impact through five areas known as the MARCS of a Disciple.

M MISSIONAL
A disciple engages with those unengaged with the church.

A ACCOUNTABLE
A disciple is real with oneself, God, and others.

R REPRODUCIBLE
A disciple invests in men and women who are of F.A.I.T.H.
(Faithful, Available, Intentional, Teachable, Hungry)

C COMMUNAL
A disciple intentionally shares life with other believers.

S SCRIPTURAL
A disciple experiences intimacy with Christ through regularly reading, meditation, and obeying God's Word.

D-GROUP COVENANT

OVER THE NEXT 12-18 MONTHS, I WILL DO MY BEST TO ...

- Give myself fully to the Lord during this time as I anticipate a season of spiritual transformation.
- Commit to this group and consider how I may best encourage and help others on in their relationship with Jesus.
- Meet weekly with my D-Group (60-90 minutes). When unable, I will stay involved through sharing D-Group Journals and prayer requests.
- Commit to the five weekly disciplines: Bible Reading, D-Group Journals, Scripture Memory, Accountability, and Prayer.
- Contribute to a group atmosphere of confidentiality, honesty, and transparency.
- Pray every week for the other members of my D-Group and those in my life who don't know Jesus.
- Pray and look for others in my life whom I can invite into a new D-Group when my current group decides to multiply.

THIS WEEK

Choose the reading plan your group will use and begin reading. (NOTE: Day 1 of each week is Monday and the weekends are for you to catch up on the readings). Look at page 11 and try to do a D-Group Journal on your favorite reading this week.

& SCRIPTURE MEMORY

Every week we will follow the same rhythm that includes each of the five weekly disciplines. The example below is meant to be a helpful guide, but it is far from an exact science. Ultimately, the pace and content of the conversation is set by the discernment of the leader. The times will vary depending on the length of your D-Group meeting and the amount of people in your group. Today, we will introduce two disciplines: D-Group Journals and Scripture Memory.

NORMAL D-GROUP RHYTHM

FELLOWSHIP: 10 MINUTES

Spend the first ten minutes catching up. If you want, you can be more structured in this time and have each person share his or her “high” and “low” of the week.

SCRIPTURE MEMORY: 5-10 MINUTES

After everyone quotes the week’s memory verse, ask, “As you meditated on this verse, what stood out to you?” We want to store God’s Word in our heart, not just be able to recite it.

BIBLE READING & D-GROUP JOURNALS: 25-35 MINUTES

As you share D-Group Journals, a great question to ask is, “Which of your D-Group Journals stood out the most to you this week and what are you doing about it?”

ACCOUNTABILITY: 10-20 MINUTES

In addition to our D-Group Journal question, we always ask: “How have you prayed for and invested in your ONE this week?” If there is additional time, you can discuss a question from the Accountability Questions on page 16.

PRAYER: 10 MINUTES

Finish the time by having each person share something specific and personal that the group can pray for.

WHAT IS A D-GROUP JOURNAL?

A D-Group Journal is a simple way to help you read the Bible with the intention of applying it.

By asking the following questions, you can understand and apply any passage. In addition, journaling is a great discipline because it helps you retain three times more of what you read.

Every week, each of us will share a D-Group Journal and discuss what we have heard from God’s Word. There is not a set amount of D-Group Journals that you must do each week, but the goal with this discipline, as with all of the others, is to improve as time goes on. Consider how often you currently journal and do “+1” of that. So, if you have never journaled, just try to do a couple a week. If you journal occasionally, try to do three times a week. The hope is that as you get more comfortable with this discipline and experience its benefit, you will want to increase this number throughout the year.

Take a look at the D-Group Journal example on page 11. As you read through your reading plan this week, create a D-Group Journal by using these questions:

What does this passage tell us about God?

What does this passage tell us about people?

Are there any promises to believe?

Are there any commands to obey?

What does this passage compel you to pray?

NOTE: These questions are not meant to be fully applied every time to every chapter. Just read the passage a few times with an eye toward seeing God.

SAMPLE D-GROUP JOURNAL ENTRY

PASSAGE: JAMES 4

WHAT DOES THIS PASSAGE TELL ME ABOUT GOD?

He is jealous for us (v. 5) and gives grace to the humble (v. 6). He wants to draw near to us (v. 8). He is lawgiver and judge (v. 12). He is sovereign and directs our steps (v. 15).

WHAT DOES THIS PASSAGE TELL ME ABOUT PEOPLE?

We tend to fight and quarrel (v. 1) and our desires can lead us to sin (v. 2). We are prone to love the world instead of loving God (v. 4) We are indwelled by the Spirit of God if believers (v. 5). Our lives are short and like a vapor (v. 14).

ARE THERE ANY PROMISES FOR ME TO BELIEVE?

Draw near to God and he will draw near to us (v. 8). Humble yourself and he will exalt you (v.10). Resist the devil and he will flee from you. (v. 7).

ARE THERE ANY COMMANDS FOR ME TO OBEY?

Submit to God (v. 7), resist the devil (v. 7), and humble yourself before God (v. 10). Do not speak evil against one-another (v. 11). Know what is right, and then do it (v. 17).

WHAT DOES THIS PASSAGE COMPEL ME TO PRAY?

Pray for awareness of the brevity of my life and an urgency to live more dependent on Him (v. 13- 17). Pray for a desire to draw near to God, submit to Him, humble myself, and resist the devil (v. 7).

HOW WILL WE DO SCRIPTURE MEMORY?

“I know of no other single practice in the Christian life more rewarding, practically speaking, than memorizing Scripture ... No other single exercise pays greater spiritual dividends! Your prayer life will be strengthened. Your witnessing will be sharper and much more effective. Your attitudes and outlook will begin to change. Your mind will become alert and observant. Your confidence and assurance will be enhanced. Your faith will be solidified.”

- Chuck Swindoll

Every week, groups will practice Scripture memory. We encourage groups to choose their own verses to memorize each week or pick a longer passage of scripture to memorize together over time. Write your selected verses in the blank spaces in the reading plans at the back of this guide. If you need a resource for gospel-centered verses, you can use fighterverses.com.

This is a largely neglected discipline that has amazing benefit for the believer. The discipline’s purpose is to store God’s Word in our heart (Psalm 119:11). For this reason, we do not want to only memorize verses, but to meditate on them as we do it. Once everyone recites the verse, the group will discuss what stood out to them as they meditated on it.

The more aligned our group is in this discipline, the more beneficial it will be. The group can decide this together along with what translation people prefer. Though it is not required to use the same translation, it benefits everyone when we are able to work as a team to say the same verse in the same translation. Lastly, we will periodically review verses that we have done in the past.

- What experience do you have with Scripture Memory?
- How could you see Scripture Memory being beneficial in your life?
- What verses will we commit to and what translation will we use?
- How can we be intentional about reviewing verses so that we don’t forget them?

ACCOUNTABILITY & PRAYER

WEEK 3

This week, we will continue our normal rhythm of D-Group through the five weekly disciplines. We will spend extra time on the accountability and prayer section as we introduce this element more fully into the group.

NORMAL D-GROUP RHYTHM

---

FELLOWSHIP: 10 MINUTES

Spend the first ten minutes catching up. If you want, you can be more structured in this time and have each person share his or her “high” and “low” of the week.

SCRIPTURE MEMORY: 5-10 MINUTES

After everyone quotes the week’s memory verse, ask, “As you meditated on this verse, what stood out to you?”

BIBLE READING & D-GROUP JOURNALS: 25-35 MINUTES

As you share D-Group Journals, a great question to ask is, “Which of your D-Group Journals stood out the most to you this week and what are you doing about it?”

ACCOUNTABILITY: 10-20 MINUTES

Our accountability time starts as we discuss our D-Group Journals and how we are responding.

In addition, we always discuss our ONE, “How have you prayed for & invested in your ONE this week?”

As a group, walk through the exercise on page 15.

If there is additional time in your group, you can discuss one of the accountability questions on page 16. If not, do this in the next few weeks.

PRAYER: 10 MINUTES

Finish the time by having each person share something specific and personal that the group can pray for.

WHO'S YOUR ONE?

We want every believer to identify ONE person in their life who is far from God and intentionally pursue that person with the hope of the gospel by praying, investing, and inviting. As a D-Group, we continually encourage and hold each other accountable to be intentional with this relationship.

Once you identify who this person is, we want to commit to doing three things:

PRAY - We will pray daily for these names. We will ask God to make them aware of Christ's love and their need for Him (2 Cor. 4:4; Matt.13:15) and to give them the faith to repent and believe (Acts 20:21; Romans 10:9-10).

INVEST - We will create ways to invest weekly in these people's lives. Our hope is to build a relationship where we can share Christ's love with them (1 Cor. 9:19-23). As we invest in someone's life, we build trust, which creates more opportunities to share the gospel.

INVITE - As we pray and invest, we invite them to the next right thing. The ideal would be to share your faith and invite them to enter into a relationship with Jesus Christ. When people aren't there yet, we can invite them to belong in our community before they believe. We do this by inviting them to events like our Community Groups, Sunday morning service, or an outreach event.

During the accountability time of our D-Group each week, we will ask "How have you been praying and investing in your ONE this week?" How exciting would it be if they come to know Jesus and then joined your next D-Group!

Take a moment and identify one person in your life who either doesn't have a relationship with Jesus or is disengaged with the local church or in their faith. This person should be someone you see on a regular basis. (Example: your co-worker, family member, roommate, a close friend, classmate, teammate, etc).

Once you identify this person, write down their first name and share a little about this person with the group.

ACCOUNTABILITY QUESTIONS

CORE QUESTIONS

Each week, we ask these two questions:

1. Which of your D-Group Journals stood out the most to you this week and what are you doing about it?
2. How have you been praying for and investing in your ONE this week?

ADDITIONAL QUESTIONS

When there is additional time, we may ask the following questions. One suggestion is to ask each person to circle the question that they need to be asked the most often.

- Have you honored God with your thoughts, words, and actions this week?
- Have you spent quality time with your family and/or closest friends this week?
- Have you given in to any addictive behavior this past week? (alcohol, tobacco, video games, work, TV, purity, etc.)
- Have you damaged another person by your words, either behind his or her back or face-to-face?
- Have you participated in anything unethical this week?
- Have you been completely honest with your answers?
