

Discussion Questions for Luke 1:46-55

1. In what way(s) did God speak to you today through His Spirit and His Word?
2. When is a time in your life when your consideration of the Gospel moved you to praise the Lord spontaneously and passionately?
3. In what ways are you challenged by Mary's and Joseph's trust in and obedience to the Lord?
4. How do you think your trusting in and obeying the Lord is encouraging others?
5. If worship surrounds so much of the birth narratives of Jesus in Matthew and Luke, how can we make worshipping Christ a priority in the Christmas season? What are some of the biggest competitors in your heart right now to worshipping Jesus?
6. Why does God not want us to "just go through the motions" of worship but for our hearts and heads to both be engaged when expressing praise to the Lord?
7. How should we respond knowing God is not just mighty but merciful? Why should we never lose awe in God choosing to be merciful?
8. Why is God the only one who can ultimately satisfy the hunger of our souls? How does He satisfy this hunger?
9. How can what we see in Luke 1 fuel our confidence God will be faithful to all His promises? What difference should such hope make in our lives on a daily basis? Who is not currently worshipping the Lord but needs you to share the Gospel with them this week?
