

Discussion Questions for Genesis 1:1-25

1. In what way(s) did God speak to you today through His Spirit and His Word?
2. In what ways can you see Genesis 1 was not written just to be an explanation of Creation but an exaltation of the Creator? Why is our world tempted just to worship what has been created rather than the One who created all things?
3. Why is it important that we serve the God who speaks?
4. What can we learn about God's power as He creates all things by His powerful word? How should this be comforting for God's people?
5. What can we learn about God's will by seeing the phrase, "And it was so" repeated throughout Genesis 1?
6. What can we learn about God's creativity from Genesis 1?
7. What can we learn about God's concern for details from Genesis 1?
8. How does Creation testify of God's purpose and place for His people?
9. Why is it such a big deal that God would want a place not just for His people to live but to dwell with His people?
10. How is Genesis 1 encouraging for you?
