

Discussion Questions for Genesis 2:1-3

1. In what way(s) did God speak to you today through His Spirit and His Word?
2. How is God's awesomeness and uniqueness displayed through creating all things that exist in six days of work?
3. How do we know God's resting on the seventh day was not because He was exhausted from speaking all things into existence?
4. How should the finished work of creation be an encouragement to us about how God works? What can it tell us about the good work He starts in us through Christ?
5. How do we know God's ceasing of creation work is not a ceasing of all His work? How is God currently working in our world?
6. What was God's purpose in blessing and making the seventh day holy?
7. Why do we gather to worship on the first day of the week instead of the seventh day?
8. Why should we prioritize resting and rejoicing in God with other believers each Sunday? What tempts you most or what do you allow to keep you from prioritizing resting and rejoicing in God with other believers?
9. How does our resting and rejoicing in God each Sunday image God well?
10. Why should we rejoice in the provision of God's rest that comes through Christ?
11. Who are we helping find this rest?
