Passage in a Sentence: As we make decisions in life, we need to rely on God's Spirit and Word so we will make faithful choices rather than foolish ones.

- I. When you've been disobedient, choose to run to God and receive His pardon.
- II. When you experience conflict, choose to reflect His priorities.
 - a. His grace will help you value reconciliation and relationships more than your rights.
 - b. His grace will help you value generosity over greed.
- III. When you have opportunities, choose to rely on His promptings.
 - a. Rely on the Spirit instead of just relying on your sight.
 - b. Move toward godliness and conviction rather than worldliness and compromise.
- IV. When you've chosen obedience and are right where you are supposed to be, choose to rejoice in His presence and rest in His promises.
 - a. His grace will help you value fellowship with Him over friendship with the world.
 - b. His grace will help you rest in His promises.
